NO DOUBT ABOUT IT.

Congress Officially Ascertains the Result of Election.

CANVASS OF THE ELECTORAL VOTE.

All Former Rumors That McKinley And Roosevelt Were Elected are Now Confirmed—Proceedings In the House and Senate.

Washington, Feb. 13.—The ceremony of counting the electoral vote for president and vice president cast at the election in November took place in the hall of the house of representatives at a joint session of the house and senate. The method of counting the vote is prescribed with great detail by the statutes and was followed literally. Great crowds thronged the galleries to witness the interesting spectacle. At 12:45 proceedings in the house were suspended and five rows of seats upon the right of the hall were vacated for the members of the senate. At one minute before 1 o'clock Colonel Ransdell, sergeant-at-arms of the senate, appeared at the main door opposite the speaker's desk and announced the president pro tem and members of the senate. Members of the house arose to receive them, while pages carried to the clerk's desk the caskets in which the electoral returns were deposited.

Senator Frye, president pro tem of the senate, ascended the rostrum and took his place at the right of Speaker Henderson to preside over the joint session. Immediately below Speaker Henderson and Senator Frye at the clerk's desk were the tellers of the two houses, Senators Chandler of New Hampshire and Caffery of Louisiana, and Representatives Grosvenor and Richardson of Tennessee, flanked on either hand by the secretary of the senate, Mr. Bennett, and the clerk of the house, Mr. McDowell. Still below them on the floor the other officers of the house and senate ranged themselves in front of the marble rostrum. Senator Frye rapped for order, when all were seated. "The senate and the house of representatives of the United States," he announced, "are in joint session, pursuant to the constitution and laws of the United States, for opening the certificates and counting the votes of electors for president and vice president of the United States. If there is no objection, the formal portions of the certificates will be omitted." After the vote was canvassed President Pro Tem Frye declared William McKinley elected president and Theodore Roosevelt vice president of the United States, and dissolved the joint meeting of the house and senate.

In the Senate.

Mr. Clark (Wyo.) presented the credentials of his colleague, Francis E. Warren, re-elected senator from Wyoming for a term of six years, beginning March, 1901.

In reporting favorably a batch of private pension bills Mr. Gallinger, chairman of the committee on pensions, gave notice to senators that it would be useless for them to introduce any more pension bills at this session as the committee on pensions could not handle them.

The senate confirmed the following nominations: James H. Wilson of Delaware and Fitzhugh Lee of Virginia, brigadier generals of volunteers, to be brigadier generals in the regular army; Colonel John C. Bates, U. S. A. (major general U. S. V.), to be brigadier general; Edward P. Seeds of Iowa, deputy auditor for the war department; Frank H. Richards of Alaska, marshal for the district of Alaska, Second division; William B. Childers of New Mexico, attorney for the territory of New Mexico; Lieutenant Colonel J. R. Campbell, Thirteenth infantry, U. S. V., to be brigadier general.

Mr. Mooney (Miss.) reported from the foreign relations committee a bill to prevent the sale of firearms, opium and intoxicating liquors in certain islands of the Pacific, and asked for its immediate consideration. Mr. Morgan (Ala.) remarked that he dissented from the report, and therefore objected to the consideration of the bill. A house bill authorizing the Alafia, Manatee and Gulf Coast railway to build bridges across the Manatee river and Gasparilla sound was passed. At 11:40 a.m. the senate on motion of Mr. Hawley (Conn.) went into executive session, to consider army appointments. All the nominations for brigadier generals were confirmed by the senate.

In the House.

The house continued consideration of the sundry civil bill.

Not on Record.

Washington, Feb. 13.—Records of the state department contain nothing to confirm the statement emanating from Toronto to the effect that Secretary Hay has protested against the despatch of Charles Langeler from Canada to London and St. Petersburg, in the prosecution of the Canadian search for evidence to sustain its contention relative to the contested boundary line between Canada and Alaska. As to the further statement that the high joint commission is still alive and subject to reconvention to consider this boundary question it is said that this is a question to be determined at the pleasure of either government, United States or England.

CHANGE OF CREED.

Committee in Session to Revise the Westminster Confession.

Washington, Feb. 13.—The Presbyterian committee appointed to consider the revision of the Westminster Confession of Faith has resumed its deliberations. Examination of reports from presbyteries on this question at the meeting of the committee held here last December disclosed that a majority of the presbyteries desired some change in the creed. At this convention this committee will formulate a statement, making recommendations upon the revision to the general assembly, which convenes in Philadelphia next May. This statement will contain the views of the committee based upon the reports of presbyteries. At the opening session the topics were spiritedly debated, but no decision was reached.

Fight May Be Postponed.

Cincinnati, Feb. 13.—It is officially announced that the prize fight Friday night will be postponed, as parties from a distance will not have time to get here after the decision of Judge Hollister is rendered Thursday noon, but the date to which the contest is postponed will depend upon the decision. If the injunction is refused the postponement will be for only a few days. If the injunction is allowed the postponement will be for some weeks in order to give time for carrying the case through the circuit and supreme courts.

Eighth May Be Called Out.

Canton, O., Feb. 13.—Orders were received by Captain Fisher of company C, Eighth regiment, Ohio national guard, to be prepared to go to Cincinnati with his company on short notice should it be found necessary to send troops to that city to prevent the proposed prize fight Friday night. Provisional arrangements have been made with the Pennsylvania company for a special train to pick up the various companies of the Eighth regiment at Alliance, Canton, Orrville and other points and take them to Cincinnati.

Rumor Denied.

Toledo, Feb. 13.—So far no orders of any kind have come to the Toledo officers of the Sixth regiment, Ohio national guard, in relation to the Cincinnati glove contest. Colonel Stanbury, commander of the regiment, is in Cincinnati in connection with his duties as traveling salesman.

New Incorporations.

Columbus, O., Feb. 13.—First Free Methodist church, Zanesville; Eagle Hardware company, East Liverpool, increase from $15,000 to $50,000, and amendment enlarging purpose and changing name to Milligan Hardware and Supply company; New Twentieth Century Mutual Aid association, Cincinnati; Sandusky, Mansfield and Newark Railroad company, Sandusky, amendment changing location to Newark; Canfield Oil company, Cleveland, increase from $25,000 to $200,000.

Cigarmakers Strike.

Tampa, Fla., Feb. 13.—Between 300 and 400 employes of the Sanchez and Hay cigar factory here went on strike. They demand the payment of $10 each for the time they claim was lost recently in waiting for material to arrive from Cuba. The house refused this and the strike followed. Other demands, it is understood, will be made. All those on strike are members of the Resistencia union, and have the backing of that organization. The situation is very unsettled.

Cape Colony's Trade.

Cape Town Feb. 13.—The trade returns of Cape Colony for 1900 show the imports increased about £500,000. The exports were only £8,147,670, against £23,247,258. The principal decreases were: Gold, £16,478,888; products, £1,608,389; diamonds £701,751.

Overdue Steamer Signed.

Queenstown, Feb. 13.—The Belgian steamer Rhynland of the International Navigation company, which left Philadelphia Jan. 26 for Queenstown and Liverpool, and was over five days overdue, was sighted off Browhead, about 60 miles from here at 5:30 p. m.

Stead's Son to Wed American Girl.

Indianapolis, Feb. 13.—It is announced that Alfred Stead, son of William T. Stead, is en route from London to Indianapolis to wed Miss Mary Hussey of this city. The marriage will take place this month at the home of Miss Hussey's uncle.

CARRIE'S TOUR CLOSED

Saloon Smasher's Lecturing Career Collapsed In Chicago.

SHE COULDN'T KEEP UP THE PACE.

Slumming In Tenderloin District Proved too Much For Her—New Yorker Offers to Loan Her His Battle Ax—Back to Topeka.

Chicago, Feb. 13.—Mrs. Nation visited about a dozen saloons and asked the proprietors to attend her mass-meeting of saloonkeepers. She was then driven to the Cook County Democracy ball at the Second Regiment armory. She looked at the dancers a few minutes and left without making any remarks. Mayor Harrison, who had led the grand march earlier in the evening, had just left for home a few minutes before the arrival of Mrs. Nation. Mrs. Nation got back to her hotel at 2 a. m. and went to bed.

It is safe to say the saloons of Chicago, and the tenderloin district in particular, will not be visited further by Mrs. Carrie Nation of Kansas. Physical exhaustion and an almost complete loss of her voice, caused by her outdoor speaking the past few days and her tour of the levee Tuesday night, confined Mrs. Nation to her rooms until the hour set for her appearance at Willard hall, and compelled her to give up her plans for further personal visits to the saloons.

The meeting at Willard hall ended Mrs. Nation's brief lecturing tour. At 10 p. m. she started for Topeka, Kan., where she is to stand trial for saloon wrecking. In order to reach Topeka in time for trial she will not stop at Kansas City, where she intended to lecture. "I am sorry for that," said she; "I believe I could do a great deal of good in that city. It needs a stirring up." Mrs. Nation's program for the day included a call on Mayor Harrison and a heart-to-heart talk with Chief of Police Kipley, but found neither in when she called.

When informed of Mrs. Nation's intention of visiting him Mayor Harrison said: "I will not see Mrs. Nation. I don't understand that the Kansas saloon smasher has anything of interest to the city of Chicago to impart, and inasmuch as I am a very busy man I don't see my way clear to listen to her. Chicago had a taste of anarchy in Haymarket Square some years ago and I believe the city cares for no more of it in the shape of Carrie Nation and her hatchet. Meanwhile the police, if they are obeying instructions, are enforcing the midnight closing ordinance and the best thing Mrs. Nation can do is to hurry back to Kansas."

Hundreds of letters, some threatening, many commendatory, and not a few enclosing small amounts of money, are being received by Mrs. Nation. Among them was one from "Battle Ax Paddy" Gleason, former mayor of Long Island City, in which the latter, after congratulating Mrs. Nation on her work, invited her to come to New York, and placed his battle ax at her disposal.

About 1,500 people, a large majority of them women, were crowded into the little auditorium of Willard hall, when Mrs. Nation, escorted by several local Woman's Christian Temperance union leaders, pushed her way down the aisle to the platform. So great was the crush in fact that the meeting was hastily adjourned after Mrs. Nation and one other had spoken. Many women, crushed in the struggling mass around the door, fainted and were taken out with great difficulty. Cheers and applause greeted Mrs. Nation, as the latter stepped on the platform and untied her bonnet strings. Her speech was frequently applauded.

Men Smash a Saloon.

Winfield, Kan., Feb. 13.—A crowd of men, women and boys smashed a saloon here. The boys were mostly students from the Methodist college at Winfield. The saloon was completely wrecked. Charles Schmidt, a brother of the proprietor, was cut on the head with a hatchet and severely injured. Shots were fired by both sides. Emma Denny was hit in the mouth by a bullet or a piece of glass, it is not known positively which Charles and Henry Schmidt, who were in the saloon at the time of the raid made a show of resistance. Charles drew a revolver, and was cut in the face with a hatchet wielded, he says, by the Rev. Frank Lowther. The wildest excitement followed the raid and several street fights have taken place. The situation is serious and Mayor Albright has called a meeting of the council to consider means for the preventing of trouble.

Belligerency Recognized.

Springfield, Ills., Feb. 13.—A resolution inviting Mrs. Carrie Nation, the Kansas saloon smasher, to address the house of representatives Feb. 14, at 2 p. m., was introduced by Representative Witt. The reading of the resolution was received with laughter. Speaker Sherman looked over the resolution a few minutes and then said: "Referred to the committee on military affairs." Mr. McKinzie moved that the resolution be made a special order for Feb. 27 and the motion prevailed by a viva voce vote.

FOREIGN TRADE.

Survey of Commercial Relations of The United States.

Washington, Feb. 13.—The general survey of foreign trade introductory to the volume on "Commercial Relations with the United States," which formed the subject of special letters from the president and the secretary of state to congress, has just been published by Frederick T. Morey, head of the bureau of foreign commerce and compiler of this matter in the shape of a special number of the advance sheets of consular reports.

"The question of the future," says the publication, is whether we can hold the position we seem about to gain by means of our economy of production, greater labor efficiency and cheap raw materials, or whether we shall have to arm ourselves with weapons especially fashioned for controlling foreign trade, such as more scientific export methods, better facilities of banking and transportation, more liberal credits, and manufacture for particular markets, with intelligent regard to climatic and race requirements."

According to United States treasury returns the imports of this country for last year in round numbers amounted to $830,000,000, and the exports to $1,478,000,000, an increase of over $30,000,000 in the import trade as compared with the preceding year, and of $202,480,000 in exports.

On the whole it appears that nowhere does the United States appear to disadvantage in foreign trade. The bureau's statement closes with warm commendation of the zeal of United States consul officers abroad in preparing and transmitting their reports.

Deluge of Protests.

Washington, Feb. 13.—The state department and treasury department are being deluged with telegrams from business interests protesting against the imposition of the countervailing duty on sugar imported from Russia. Nearly all the correspondents urge that such action on the part of the United States will prove ruinous to export trade with Russia, which already has attained large proportions with promise of an increase in the future, as the Siberian railroad and new transpacific steamship lines open.

Merriam's Command.

Washington, Feb. 13.—The retirement of Generals John M. Wilson and Fitzhugh Lee will take effect immediately after the confirmation of their nominations as brigadier generals by the senate. General H. C. Merriam, commanding the Department of Colorado, will take charge of the Department of the Missouri in conjunction with his present duty.

Washington, Feb. 13.—Delegate Wilcox of Hawaii filed his brief in support of his right to hold a seat in congress and in defense to the legal objections raised in petitions filed against him. The document is lengthy.

Washington, Feb. 13.—The president sent the following nominations to the senate: Charles A. Boutelle of Maine, to be captain on the retired list of the navy; Francis M. McKay, to be postmaster at Logan, O.

LOYAL TO THE KING.

Pompous Demonstration on Behalf of City of London.

HIGH STATE DIGNITARIES PRESENT.

Edward's Address In Reply to Pledge Of Loyalty—First Parliament Of New Regime Will Be Opened With Gorgeous Ceremony.

London, Feb. 13.—The lord mayor, the sheriffs and aldermen, robed in mazarin gowns, accompanied by civic officers, sword bearers, mace bearers and other attendants, rode in state carriages to St. James palace to present to the king a loyal address on behalf of the city of London.

The king and the Duke of Cornwall and York, attended by their suites, reached the palace shortly after noon. The ceremonial was the same as is observed at a levee. All the principal officers of state were present. The king wore the uniform of a field marshal and the Duke of York wore a rear admiral's uniform.

His majesty was received at the entrance by the great officers of state, was conducted to the throne room and received the address. His majesty varied the customary procedure. Instead of merely handing a reply he read it in a clear, firm voice, as follows: "I am much gratified at your loyal and dutiful addresses and the zeal and affection they testify for my throne and person. It is a great consolation to me in my grief to know of the wide and heartfelt sympathy to which you give consolation, and I will ever cherish the recollection of the memorable reign of my beloved mother, renowned in our annals alike for the progress of the people in prosperity and refinement and for their ever widening and deepening attachment to our government and institutions. The ancient city of London, alike illustrious by its history and by the efforts of its enterprising citizens, has ever been foremost in responding to the call of duty and in devotion to the interests of the empire, and I feel certain its future will not belie its glorious past. I humbly join in your prayer that the blessing of Almighty God may be continued to myself and my consort, and I confidently hope the efforts I will make to fulfill the expectations of my happy and loyal people will, under divine guidance, promote the welfare of my empire and the prosperity of all classes of my subjects."

The king's reply to the address of the London county council was of similar tenor, but also included references to the improvements of London. His majesty said he was confident the London county council would not slacken its efforts to deal with the many difficult questions, "especially the proper housing of the working classes, in which I have always taken the deepest personal interest."

The hour fixed for opening in state the first parliament under the reign of King Edward VII is 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

General Shaw's Funeral.

Watertown, N. Y., Feb. 13.—The remains of Albert D. Shaw, congressman from this district, and late commander-in-chief of the Grand Army, were interred in Brookside cemetery with military honors. After private funeral services at the family residence the body of General Shaw laid in state at the armory, where thousands of citizens viewed the remains. Besides the local Grand Army post and social and political organizations of Watertown, with whom General Shaw was connected, there was a large representation of Grand Army men from all over northern New York in attendance at the funeral services. National guardsmen fired a volley over the grave.

BRADLEY OUT OF IT.

The Ex-Governor No Longer in the Race for Federal Judge—Cochran Slated for the Position.

[Louisville Commercial.]

A big sensation was sprung in political circles Tuesday and as a result the knowing ones are realizing that sometimes the recommendations from the most influential men in the State will fail to land a politician in a soft birth.

The surprise was that S. J. Pugh's claims for the new United States Judgeship, which were recommended by Senator William J. Deboe, have been ignored by President McKinley. Hon. W. O. Bradley has withdrawn from the field and Judge A. M. J. Cochran, of Maysville, will be endorsed by President McKinley for the new berth.

The President's indorsement of Mr. Cochran has been known to a few in political circles for several days, but the matter leaked out Tuesday.

Not so with the friends of ex-Gov. Bradley. They immediately got together and decided that influence must be brought to bear so that President McKinley would change his indorsement.

Col. C. C. Mengel and other warm friends of the ex-Governor met and decided that a large delegation should go to Washington and do all in their power to have the President indorse Mr. Bradley.

Gov. Bradley three days ago came to this city and registered at the Louisville Hotel. He knew that his stay in the city must be kept a secret, and accordingly registered on the private register, but he kept in constant conference with his friends. But when Gov. Bradley heard that Cochran had the inside he refused to oppose him.

Col. Mengel and the other gentlemen who had determined to go to Washington were notified to come to the hotel.

When they assembled Gov. Bradley arose and stated that he did not wish them to go to Washington, and, while he thanked them for their warm support, he begged that plans for the trip be discontinued.

To say that this announcement surprised those present would be putting it too lightly. His friends were paralyzed with astonishment, and as soon as they had recovered they begged him to change his decision. But Bradley remained unshaken in his stand, notwithstanding the arguments. Finding that Bradley was obdurate, the gentlemen present immediately relinquished their plans to see McKinley.

As the matter now stands Cochran will get the appointment without opposition.

Says Cochran is Sure for Judge.

[Enquirer.]
A prominent Kentucky Republican who recently returned from a political trip to Washington, D. C., said at the Gibson yesterday that he got it straight while at the Capital that Judge A. M. J. Cochran will be appointed to the new Kentucky Federal Judgeship.

Sec. 35, Rule XII.—Officials are expected to be as strict as possible, both with players and spectators. In all cases not covered in rules, officials are to use their own judgment in accord with the general spirit of the rules.

We were correct when we said a while since that we did not intend having dull January and February business. To be sure, there is no profit, in fact in many instances there are losses on our sales; but we have always had a great weakness to close out one season's stock before the next season comes in, hence

OUR STOCK IS ALWAYS FRESH AND NEW!

There still must be a good many people who have not availed themselves of securing "our kind" of Clothing at the cut prices we are now selling at. Why not come in and buy an Ulster or Overcoat at a price that will of the money you will have to pay for it next winter? What an excellent opportunity now to buy a Stein-Bloch or Adler Suit, medium weight, one that you can wear nine months out of the twelve, and buy it for less money than you buy ordinary goods for. We will be benefitted in turning these goods into money, in buying them. Were we addicted to fake advertising, that so many Clothing men resort to, viz: the fellows who advertise $10 Suits for $3.98, we would embellish more. The truth needs no embellishment; you know we only advertise and sell "straight goods."

BUT YOU WILL BE VASTLY MORE BENEFITTED

Here it is! Reduced prices. We say "reduced" but please remember that prices were originally low. Linens are always marked moderately here.

Exquisite Towels!

No exaggeration in that adjective. The towels are beauties. Have sold for 75 and 90 cents each—during this sale 50 and 65 cents. "Satiny" damask that would mirror the sun's rays if given the chance. Too handsome almost for material uses, correctly beautiful for ornamentation of towel racks, dressers, tables, sideboards, etc. Knotted fringe or hemstitched ends. Many with intricate open work designs in border. No touch of color to detract from their pure white loveliness. We do not often rhapsodize but the cause justifies the effect to-day. RAIL RUMBLINGS.

The Part the Modern Iron Horse Plays in the Business of a Local Concern.

These are busy days indeed for everybody connected with the Frank Owens Hardware Company. The vast quantities of stuff the concern has been receiving the past few weeks has kept the entire force hustling unloading and storing the firm's large purchases for the spring trade.

Another car-load of field fence was received this morning, making the fourth of six car-loads of general merchandise due to be delivered this month.

The Messrs. Owens say these fresh invoces wait to the utmost the capacity of their warerooms, and they still have other stuff coming on.

Fortunately much of the wire goods have been already sold. The house having run short on certain widths of fencing, took orders for future delivery, and the purchasers have been invited to call for their goods to make way for the expected invoices.

The company has been one of the BULLETIN's most liberal advertisers for a couple of years, and this evidence of prosperity bears out the claims made for a judicious use of printers' ink.

Young Women

The entry into womanhood is a critical time for a girl. With her whole being undergoing a change, the seeds of female troubles are sown. Little menstrual disorders, if neglected at the time, will follow the woman all her life and grow into fatal complications. That female troubles are robbing homes and filling graveyards, proves this. Yet, irregular and painful menstruation are often permitted to go on, sappling the life and energy, while Wine of Cardui, the positive relief for these ills, is on the shelf of every drug store. Wine of Cardui helps the maiden sustain the shock of puberty by inducing a painless and natural menstrual flow. When once this important function is started right, a healthy life will usually follow. Wine of Cardui is an emmenagogue of great power, and works wonders in strengthening the delicate and sensitive female organs. Many young women owe their lives to Wine of Cardui. No woman should give up hope until she has given Wine of Cardui a trial. If thousands have secured relief through it, why not you?

WINE of CARDUI

Tully, Kas., Feb. 24, 1899.
I have suffered untold pain at menstrual periods for a long time; was nervous, had no appetite, and lost interest in everything; in fact was miserable. I have taken four bottles of Wine of Cardui with Black-Draught when needed and today I am entirely cured. I cannot express the thanks I feel for what you have done for me.
